Sgt. Steven Kiernan · Fredericksburg, VA

Marine Sgt Steven Kiernan was deployed to Falujah, Iraq, when he lost both his legs in May 2008. While leading a foot patrol, Sgt. Kiernan and his team were hit by an IED, creating confusion in what had moments before been an ordinary day. Life saving measures were applied, including tourniqueting both of Steven's legs. He was medevaced in a HUMVEE and later transported to Germany, then to Bethesda Naval Hospital and eventually to Walter Reed, where he remains today receiving rehab and physical therapy.
